MITCHELL DEMANDS FLYING OFFICERS FOR TRIAL

Colonel Says
He Told Only
Actual Facts

Only Three Officers Would Be Qualified To Sit On Court-Martial

LAW REQUIRES FIVE OFFICERS

Question of Disrespect To Be Decided Under The Trial

By CHARLES B. PALMER
(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—On the eve of his facing a court martial, which may result in his dismissal from the Army, Colonel "Billy" Mitchell, "America's fighting flying leader," demanded that he be tried by a court martial consisting of flying officers. He made this announcement today in an exclusive statement to the Universal Service.

Mitchell holds that he is guilty of nothing except telling the truth about "defensive America." He states that he does not want anyone to sit in judgment over him who does not know of the actual conditions. Articles of war require that an officer must be his superior in rank, not less than 5, every member of the U. S. Air Service, Brigadier General Pritchett, assistant chief of the Air Service and Colonel Chalmers Hall, who was the Army observer on the ill fated Shenandoah are the only flying officers who rank Mitchell. General Pritchett is an ardent admirer of Mitchell's. General Pritchett is said to respect his views and Colonel Hall is said to be an enthusiastic enthusiast of the policies fostered by Mitchell.

The question which the court martial will be called upon to decide is "Was Colonel Mitchell, on September 5, 1925, disrespectful to his superior officers of the United States Army and the War Department in his scathing criticism of the U. S. air policy."

RESIGNATION OF SUPERVISOR IS ASKED BY JURY

Request Comes As Climax Of Four Months Secret
Quiz

IS ACCUSED OF FRAUD
Charged With Being Incompetent
Improper and Unfit To Hold Office

SAN JOSE, Oct. 3.—Coming as a climax to a secret four months' investigation, the Santa Clara County Grand Jury today demanded the resignation of County Supervisor Chas. P. Cooley, former mayor of Palo Alto, member of the city council of Palo Alto and a Federal Highway Commissioner today.

The grand jury charged Cooley with being "improper, incompetent, and a person unfit to hold public office." The three specific charges made by the grand jury are outlined as follows:

That he conspired with Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Daugall of Palo Alto to defraud the county with exorbitant truck hire, using a truck purchased by Cooley himself.

That he attempted to sell to the county gas engines and machinery when such sales were illegal because of his holding public office.

That he attempted to gain possession of 20 acres of land in the heart of the 400-acre Stevens Creek Park, county property, and arranged with a real estate agent for the disposition of the land.

The grand jury has ordered Cooley to resign by October 31. If he does not do so by that time, the grand jury is prepared to recommend to the voters of the Fifth District, which Cooley represents, to recall the supervisor. It also instructed the District Attorney's office to file suit against Cooley for recovery of the money, which he is alleged to have gained from the county.

In a sweeping denial of the charges against him Cooley said that the charges are absurd and comical, and that he has no intention of resigning.

ENTIRE AMOUNT

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The French government during the negotiations over the funding of the $4,200,000,000 war debt due the United States, officially acknowledged the obligation for the first time, members of the American debt funding commission disclosed today.

When the original French proposal was submitted Senator Smoot and other members of the American commission observed that was not signed. Considerable persuasion was necessary. It was disclosed before M. Callaux would put his name to it. He did sign, eventually, and now the American commission feels that the French Government is irrevocably committed to the obligation.

Marshal Edward Carey of Emeryville Casts Lot With Federals

TO WIPE OUT BOOTLEGGERS
Federal Authorities Believe City
To Be Center of National Ring

OAKLAND, Oct. 3.—City Marshal Edward Carey of Emeryville last night proffered his assistance to Federal authorities in "cleaning up" Emeryville, following the threats of the prohibition officers to exterminate the bootleg activities of the city. A corps of four assistants from Carey's office will be prepared to render aid.

The war of extermination was started by Captain Ned Green, chief of the Federal officers, when a raid was conducted on a warehouse at 1078 Forty-seventh street, property adjoining the home of Carey. It was reported that 750 gallons of pure grain alcohol was seized and this brought from Green declarations that he had evidence that liquor wholesalers had established a rendezvous in Emeryville and were supplying a wholesale trade from that point throughout Contra Costa and Alameda counties.

When Carey heard of Green's declarations yesterday he declared that Emeryville is as anxious as any other community to see that the law is observed.

The apprehension of the entire bootleg ring may result from the discovery of a truck stored in the warehouse. District Attorney Earl Warren declared last night after hearing the reports of his operatives who are on the job. The ownership of the truck which is supposed to have transported $120,000 worth of alcohol before the raid, is being traced.

The claim of G. M. Todhunter, former Emeryville cafe owner, that he had sold the property, but did not know the present owner, complicated the hunt for the head of the supposed ring. District Attorney Warren hinted that Todhunter would be questioned over the sale preparatory to the filing of an abatement action by the county authorities.

Operatives for Warren, searching county records for the name of the owner, discovered the property is assessed to Todhunter on county record.

Christy Mathewson, for years the New York Giants' pitching ace and now part owner and president of the Boston National League club, is again fighting the battle he once had won—a fight against the dreaded tuberculosis. The fact that he has been confined to his bed at his Saratoga Lake, N. Y., home for weeks was revealed by his physician when he filed a certificate stating that "Matty" was unable to appear in court in connection with a civil suit. Months of rest are necessary before "Big Six" will have regained his health.

YOU'VE been in a theatre when the stage was dark, and a spotlight suddenly focused upon the thing you wanted most to see. Advertisements are like spotlights. They focus attention upon the goods that interest you most.

You could wander in and out a dozen stores and, in the confusion of many objects, over-look what would please you best. Yet by reading the advertisements, without leaving your home you can tell definitely where the desired wares are, their prices, how they will serve you. You can know actual values long before you buy.

Advertisements throw light on new comforts and improvements, too, you might like to own. They let you see conveniences other folks are enjoying—bring them within easy reach.

Debt Admitted By France For Entire Amount

agreement for the funding of the French obligation to Great Britain was the subject of an animated debate during the negotiations.

The Americans presented facts and figures to dispute the claim that the agreement provided for the funding of the British debt on a basis of a 2 per cent interest rate. It was disclosed that in funding the British debt an interest rate of 6 per cent was allowed on the "Political debt" and 6 1/2 per cent on the commercial debt.

Senator Smoot and other members of the American commission pointed out that if the French debt to the United States were funded on the Caillaux-Churchill basis, the returns to this Government would exceed by $167,000,000 the amount that would be collected if the debt were funded on the same basis as the British debt to America.

M. Caillaux expressed great astonishment, according to one American commissioner, and added: "I'm going back and take that matter right up with Mr. Churchill."

Advantage Held By Automobile Owners, Strom

"Possession of an automobile gives a man certain liberties and privileges which are exclusive with car owners," says J. P. Strom, local Hudson-Essex dealer. "These advantages appear in the social catalog as automobile benefits and they make as sharp a distinction in life as modern conveniences in the home."

A chart of the daily life of a car owner, compared with a similar chart made on the life of one who does not own a car, would look like a comparison of different races of men or of human life at times hundreds of years apart.

"The car owner travels thousands of miles farther than the other, sees more, plays more, works more, usually he makes more money, and enjoys more advantages, socially and professionally."

"The man who tries to get along without the automobile benefits this century has given into human life is deliberately cheating himself, because today practically anybody who wants to, can own a car."

Daniel Berk, engineman, was found in the engine room of the submarine today and brought to the surface.

With the landing of the body Admiral Christy commanding the salvage forces, ordered all operation suspended. A heavy set which made salvage work dangerous was given as the cause for this order.

Divers reported that the entire submarine had been flooded from stern to stern almost immediately after the crash instantly killing all but the three survivors, who were picked up by the City of Rome, the steamer which crashed into the undersea craft.

The statement that the unrecovered bodies of the crew were in danger from sharks was discredited last night by naval officers and deep sea divers.

"If I had only known—"

TWO women went out to buy a certain expensive labor-saving device for the home.

One was greatly disappointed when, a few days later, they compared notes. She had bought the same product that many of her friends had owned.

The other woman had secured a greatly improved, new product—costing less, but of much more value.

"If I had only known there was a better one," the first woman said, "I would never have bought this old one."

"I had just read about it in an advertisement," explained the wise buyer.

Every day you miss good news of an improvement in different articles of merchandise—unless you read the advertisements. They tell you of practically every worth-while invention—of every progress from the old to the new.

Read the advertisements—regularly. Know all about the thing you are going to buy before you buy it. It will save you disappointment, money and time.

The better a product is—the sooner you'll see it in an advertisement

Here's Novel Way of Selling English Walnuts

There are various ways of preventing thievery. But Arthur Graham San Ramon valley walnut grower, is believed to have devised one of the most original schemes.

Just on the edge of his walnut grove, which borders the highway, Graham has posted a sign reading: "Walnuts, 30 cents per pound. One dollar per pound if you pick them yourself."

He then retreats himself nearby and lies in wait for the unsuspecting visitor. When a passing motorist stops and proceeds to pick several pounds of nuts, Graham waits until the picking process is complete.

Then the owner appears and demands one dollar per pound for the nuts. If the visitor declines the six, he pointed out and Graham starts to call a cop. A picker is yet to be found who will not eventually pay.

Arrest Ordered By Air Mail For Popular Dancer

(By Universal Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—An arrest by air mail and an enforced trip to San Francisco for trial for contempt of court are the next experiences facing Evan Burrows Fantaine, exotic dancer in her sensational attempts to collect $1,000,000 from Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney for alleged breach of promise and alleged paternity of her child.

A warrant for the arrest of the dancer was issued here yesterday by United States District Judge John S. Partridge and forwarded to the United States Marshal in Chicago by air mail. The warrant directs the marshal to produce Miss Fantaine before Judge Partridge here on October 17 and orders her to show cause why she should not be punished for violating an order of the court on October 15, of last year.

Under the terms of this order the dancer was perpetually enjoined from bringing any further action against young Whitney, who is the son of Harry Payne Whitney, New York capitalist and noted international polo player and Gertrude Vanderbilt, sculptress.

In spite of this order, Miss Fantaine brought suit against Whitney in White Plains, N. Y., on June 27, again charging breach of promise to marry and making a claim for adequate support of Whitney's alleged son.

In her new suit Miss Fantaine did not renew her demand for $1,000,000, but let it be known that all she was asking was a "fair settlement."

Martinez Plans To Improve Its Memorial Hall

MARTINEZ, Oct. 3.—Plans have been launched by the Allied Council of Veterans of Martinez for benefit entertainments to be given during the winter to liquidate the indebtedness on the Memorial hall. The indebtedness, amounts to approximately $2600. The Allied Council will be required to raise the money because of the fact that the Board of Supervisors have accepted the building, and the funds from the city trustees cannot be used for other than furnishings. Through an error in the building the outlet to the swimming pool was made lower than the sewer so that pumping apparatus had to be installed.

A number of changes were made in the building following the visit of the State Board of Health examiners. The Board of Fire Underwriters also found that there were not sufficient exits to the building.

Card parties and dances will be given each month in an effort to clear the building of its indebtedness.

"EVOLUTION" AND "ANTI-EVOLUTION" CLASH HEAD ON AT 30 MILES AN HOUR AND BOTH LOSE RED-HOT DEBATE

One of the features of the fourth annual Central States Fair and Exposition at Aurora, Ill., was the staging of a railroad collision. Each locomotive, pulling two cars was given a quarter of a mile start and they were traveling about 30 miles an hour when they crashed. The trains, named "Evolution" and "Anti-Evolution," were saturated with oil to insure a spectacular blaze. The engineers left the cabs after opening the throttles wide.

KLANSMEN HOLD BIG INITIATION AND MEETING

CONCORD, Oct. 3.—A crowd of about 6,000 Klansmen, their friends and visitors witnessed the largest outdoor ceremonial this evening that has ever been held in the central part of this county.

The spectacular affair was held on the Willow Pass road about three miles, northwest of Concord on the hills.

Guards were stationed at all roads leading to and from Concord and the huge crowd was directed to the scene of the meeting.

A huge fiery cross placed on the top of the hill, and kept burning could be seen from all parts of central and eastern Contra Costa county.

For hours before the ceremonial started the roads were packed with automobiles, filled with people attracted by the event, as it had been well advertised in all parts by the posting of placards, making the announcement.

The naturalization of 250 "aliens" took place first. With automobiles formed in the shape of a hollow square, and klansmen inside of them.

In their robes forming another hollow square, and search lights playing on the center of the square, the candidates were marched into the arena, and underwent the eye of scrutiny of the klansmen in robes and masks.

Then came the ritualistic work, given by officers, which was interspersed with selections of music by the big Klan band from Oakland in which "Onward Christian Soldiers" was played.

The evening was concluded by a stirring lecture by Dr. R. L. Berger, one of the speakers from the National Realm.

CONCORD, Oct. 3.—Complaints have been made with the State railroad commission seeking to compel Thomas Parkhill, auditor of the "Sunset" magazine, and owner of lot 51, a mile from Concord to continue furnishing residents of the district with water.

The Ridge Park Improvement company, with offices at 311 California street, San Francisco was named co-defendant with Parkhill.

GOUGH WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE REPORT

Within ten days a complete statement of his assets will be required from James W. Gough, moving spirit in the Golett oil fraud, now under sentence to San Quentin for confessed violation of the corporate securities act.

The order was made by W. J. Hayes, referee in bankruptcy, after Gough refused to give a statement of his assets. E. C. Street of Oakland was appointed receiver.

Gough said he believed he owed more than $200,000, Hayes reported but beyond that refused to make any statement. He is believed to have $44,000 in Los Angeles banks and $8,000 in the Bank of San Diego. Other deposits believed to exist have not been located.

Among the assets Gough is supposed to have a large capacity still and 550 gallons of Ethyl alcohol. Hayes issued a restraining order to prevent Gough from removing the funds from any of the banks and also to prevent the Los Angeles sheriff from seizing any of the money deposited in that county.

Monday the trial of Mrs. Peggy Reeves, Edwin E. Reeves, Franklin P. Davis and C. E. Peacock on charge of conspiracy to commit grand larceny through the sale of stock in the Golett oil company will enter the fourth week. Their indictment charges the sale was predicated on a story that the company was to be the holding corporation for an $800,000,000 merger of fourteen independent oil companies, with E. L. Doheny as the head.

Assemblyman Jacob Croter was on the witness stand most of yesterday afternoon, testifying as to investments he had made through Davis and Peacock. He put $6500 into the

CARDS OVERPOWER BRONCHOS, WIN 20-3

WARNER'S MEN RECOVER FROM EARLY DEFEAT

Santa Clara Scores Field Goal Before Stanford Gets Into Swing of Game

STANFORD STADIUM, Oct. 3.—Recuperating from its slump of the first game of the season, and sweeping into form for the first time this season, the Stanford Cardinals slashed their way to victory over the Santa Clara Broncos here today by a score of 20 to 3. The victory came from a dazzling variety of line running and overhead attack. During the game Stanford improved with every minute of play.

From the raw and unsteady inheritance of the Olympic game the Cards gradually smoothed down until they presented a really effective weapon, unbroken by an early lead scored by Santa Clara. In the last quarter the Bronco line was cut to pieces at the will of Pop Warner's warriors.

The first Cardinal touchdown this year was scored by Murphy who weaved through a broken field in a 20-yard run. Santa Clara, despite its disadvantage in weight, showed a brilliant attack, forcing the Cards into the defensive for the first part of the game and later boxing the Stanford wing for several long gains. Walsh seems to have developed the groundwork of Knute Rockne's Notre Dame attack at Santa Clara with remarkable success.

PAUL WANTS JACK
NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Paul Berlenbach, ambitious champion of the light-heavyweights, thinks he will be big enough by next summer to tackle Jack Dempsey, and to that end is using bigger fellows than himself as stepping stones, while he puts on weight. Jack Delaney will probably rattle as a family skeleton as Paul seems to forget that Delaney knocked him in the fourth round just when Paul looked his best.

CHINESE WINS AGAIN

CONTESTANTS WELL MATCHED
NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Pittsburgh and Washington will go into the world series next Wednesday, as evenly matched as any contenders in recent years for baseball's highest honors. This conclusion is apparent from the analysis of the cogs in the two machines.

TILDEN AT L. A.
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—National Tennis Champion William Tilden, arrived here this afternoon accompanied by Al Chapin, his protégé, to take part in the tourney tomorrow at the Los Angeles Tennis club. The champs opponent in the singles will be Ben Hanwood while Chapin will meet Stanley Robinson.

WOMEN'S FINALS IN GOLF
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—Rain halted the National Women's Golf championships today. The weather did not permit play all day. A match between Mrs. Alexa Stirling Fraser, of Ottawa, Canada, and Glenna Collett, of Providence, will decide the championship as both won matches yesterday. Mrs. Fraser is defending the title for the fifth successive year.

HORNSBY LEADS HITTERS
CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The major league campaign ends tomorrow with Rogers Hornsby of St. Louis repeating as 1925 batting champion or the Nationals. The honors of the American rest between Harry Heilmann of Detroit and Tris Speaker pilot of the Indians. The final games will probably decide the issue between the latter two.

RUEL DECLARES SENATORS WILL DEFEAT PIRATES

By HEROLD (Muddy) RUEL
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Measured man for man I think we have a mechanical edge of the Pirates. Of course, in a certain way, the accomplishments of a player in the American league isn't a criterion of what he'll do against a champion National league club—but figures are a little help anyway.

The Pirates have an eight point edge on us in batting—the clubbing of the pitchers is not considered. But a pitcher happens to be one ninth of a club's batting strength. Because it is well, then we have a huge "edge" on our rivals for our five pitching regulars have a bawling average well over .300 whereas the Pirates pitchers have trouble getting close to a .200 as a group.

When Walter Johnson, with terrific mark of about 450, or Dutch Reuther, with .370 go on the mound for us, and the two may figure in at least two games each—we will have a huge advantage over the Pirates in the matter of hitting power. And when they aren't pitching they can do pinch-clouting duty.

I haven't the fielding statistics before me—and don't know the exact figures. But I guess the clubs are rather evenly matched there—that is, in so far as chances accepted and errors are concerned. I do know that the Pirates have a great combination—I doff my hat to its braininess, its speed and its real mechanical ability, but I do not believe that there's an infield in the game today that, defensively, is better than our Judge, Harris, Peck, Bluege combination.

In the box—well, there's where I think we have an advantage that is a real one—and one that will prove to be the decisive thing of the series. Coveleskie never pitched greater baseball in his lifetime than he has in 1925, nor has Walter Johnson. Perhaps a bit more of the blinding speed of youth is gone, but he has replaced it with curves and control and superior knowledge of the weakness of batters. Reuther has been hurling in wonderful fashion. There's no greater relief pitcher in the game today than Fred Marberry. Tom Zachery has been our tough luck pitcher this season. Everything has broken against him—that's why his list of victories has not been great. But Zach still has his old time power and cunning and when he gets a chance in the series he will prove it.

All in all, I think that we have a mechanical "edge" on those Pirates, not much of an "edge"—but enough to help us on to victory. And beyond all this I feel that we also have an advantage of the Pirates in the thing that's consistency, mercy.

PIRATE CAPTAIN DISCUSSES TWO HURLING STAFFS

By MAX CAREY
Captain of Pittsburgh Pirates
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 3.—It has often been said that pitching is 70 per cent of all baseball club's real strength; that a team with great hurlers can win even if it is only fair with the bat—and that the heaviest hitting club in the world cannot win either an important series or a pennant if the pitching is a little more than mediocre.

Which club—Senators or Pirates—has the greater pitching squad? Just now it's a matter of opinion and that opinion is based upon statistics. What do they prove? Well, here are the pitching records compiled up to the latter part of September—a time when the records really counted for it was up to then, before both clubs cinched the "flags," that the boys really had to give their absolute best.

SENATORS
Coveleskie	18	5	.783
Johnson	20	6	.769
Marberry	9	4	.692
Ruether	16	8	.667
Zachery	11	13	.453
TOTAL	74	36	.647

PIRATES
Aldridge	14	6	.703
Meadows	19	10	.655
Yde	15	9	.625
Kremer	13	8	.619
Morrison	16	13	.552
TOTAL	77	46	.630

The ranking quintet of Senators, it will be seen, have an advantage of 44 points in the winning column over our group. That would mean, if statistics counted for anything, that as a group, they are better than our men.

But statistics—well, they aren't of much account. For once more we find that they are not statistics that can be reliably compared. For the Senators pitched .647 against the American league teams—and that doesn't give any line on what they'll do against our national league club. And, by the same token, what our five leading pitchers did against the National rivals doesn't prove anything as regards what they'll do against Washington.

There's another little something that may have basic comparative merit in the case of Ruether. In 1924, as a Brooklynite, he batted only .235 in 34 games, making 63 appearances at the plate. Yet this same Ruether hit for .364 in 53 games, (102 times at bat) in the American league.

Heavier Eleven Keeps Locals Fighting in Own Territory At All Times

The bigger they come the harder they fall!

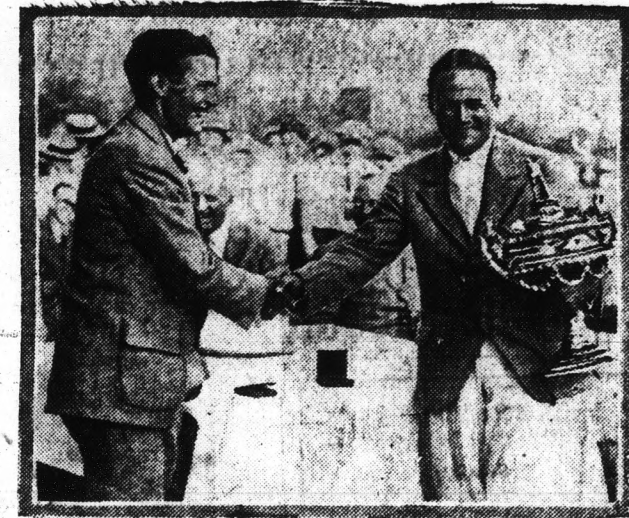

Mt. Tamalpais Union high-school took a fall—not as hard as Richmond high wanted, but it was a harder fall than was expected.

Fighting with their backs to the wall at nearly every stage of the game, Richmond bucked and fought and charged a team averaging 10 pounds more to the man and averted disaster three times for a partial victory, that of holding a much stronger team to a scoreless tie.

Only once in the whole game did Richmond have a chance to score. It came in the first quarter when the ball was on the Tamalpais forty-yard line. Gray tried a drop kick that was blown a little out of the way by a strong wind. A Richmond man was off side so the play was tried over. This time Gray allowed too much for the wind and the ball went wild. Both kicks were high and long enough—but just a trifle wide in each instance. Once in the first quarter, and twice in the last, did Mill Valley sweep down the field to Richmond's four or five yard line. It was then (Continued on Page 14.)

Twenty-year-old Gunn (at left) was the sensation of the national amateur golf championship played on the Oakmount County course at Pittsburgh. Dixon And Gutteron, Two Outstanding Stars, Sustained Bad Injuries

CALIFORNIA MEMORIAL STADIUM, Oct. 3.—The Nevada Wolves failed dismally today to score their customary touchdown then they made their annual invasion of the Bear den. They failed to the extent of 54 to 0, crushed by overweight and better generalship.

California displayed great strength in every department of the game and although the Nevada eleven fought gamely they were outclassed. The fast backfield of the Wolves was smothered before it could get under way as the light line was crushed by the Bear rush.

Both Dixon and Gutteron were badly injured during the game. It had not been ascertained late last night what the extent or nature of these injuries is.

IMMIGRATION FALLS OFF

Immigration to the United States has been cut 68 per cent during the year and in some instances, of which Italy is an eloquent example, more aliens have returned to their home country than entered America from that country during the year.

Although the law has been working as intended with regard to European and Asiatic immigration, it is predicted now that a strong attempt will be made to strengthen it by amendment during the coming session of congress.

Those who favor amendment assert that the purposes of the law are being defeated by an influx of immigration from Central and South America. The government, it is said, has been unable properly to protect our boundaries so that many immigrants, denied admission by law, have come in from Canada and Mexico. In fact wholesale smuggling of immigrants has been charged by those in favor of a more drastic law. They declare that the way to handle the situation is to tighten the lines on immigration from other parts of the western hemisphere.

The way the new law cuts down immigration is shown by the fact that during the past fiscal year 294,314 immigrants entered the country while 92,728 Europeans returned to their home country. The year previous 706,986 immigrants came in as against 76,789 aliens who left.

SLEEP AND HEALTH

One contribution all parents can make toward the education of their children without sacrifice or expense is to see to it that they get regular and adequate hours of sleep.

Physicians and neurologists agree that dullness among school children is very often sleepiness or under-development because of insufficient hours of sleep. The parent is as much acquainted as the medical world with the nervous disorders and physical ills which follow too little rest in the adolescent period. Every mother knows that a sleepless baby is a sick baby.

A trend toward nervousness among school children is attributed to irregular and insufficient hours of sleep. Accurate information would probably disclose that the men and women as well as the children of this community average eight or more hours of sleep nightly and it can not be charged that our school children are dull or under-developed.

Every adult knows that the value of sleep and the amount he or she, individually, requires for health and maximum mental and physical efficiency. Children can not be expected to ascertain this for themselves, so it is incumbent upon their parents to learn what is required and provide for it.

WORTH THINKING ABOUT

Figures show two things: that Americans are more lawless than Britons and that British justice is more sure than American. It is possible that these facts are correlated. If American justice were more sure would Americans be less lawless? It's a question worth thinking about.—Kansas City Times.

What the country needs is a method of berth control that would induce the Pullman people to restore the ancient rate of $2 for a lower.—Los Angeles Times.

Our hearts go out to the Philippines, and we Americans would be glad to share our freedom with them if we had any.

Clothmakers Go to Fur-bearing, real furs to fool any one whose opinion is worth considering.

Beasts of the Jungles and Forest, Wilds for Inspiration.

THERE has for many years been much less prejudice against imitation furs in France than in America. Perhaps it is because in France these fabrics that look somewhat like furs are not regarded as imitations. No one is really fooled by them, and they are accepted on their own merits—which, as usually happens, are considerable. For one thing, these fur fabrics are less expensive—though by no means cheap—and no harm is done when they are worn in damp weather. Many French women at the present time, who have costly fur coats and wraps, are getting coats of the new imitation broadtail to wear in bad weather, so as not to expose their mink and sable, seal or real broadtail to the bad weather. They look upon them much as they do on the imitation pearls that every one has been wearing for some time. They are beautiful and they serve a purpose and they do not look enough like

So if happened that even in July French women were ordering these fabric broadtail coats because it was possible to get them at a lower price than later when every one would want them. This fabric broadtail is made of silk and wool—you should see it to know how pliant and soft it really is.

Then there are new velvets, printed to simulate leopard and other furs. Coats of this sort of velvet are worn by women in preference to real fur because they are not so warm.

The sketch shows a little sum made of material simulating caracul. Much of this fur-fabric is made in France, but some beautiful pieces of it are of American manufacture. In this group is heavily piled imitation leopard of amazing softness and exquisite blending.

Mole skin is another peltry that gives inspiration to the fabric-makers—though perhaps the simulation is not so good as in the case of the leopard skin. Broadtail is perhaps the most successfully imitated.

SINCERE

In ancient Rome pottery was a great industry. Dishonest potters, if their work was cracked, filled the cracks with wax (Latin cerus). Thus a well-made product was said to be "without wax" (Sine Cerus). Thus the expression came to mean any honest piece of work, and was contracted to "sincere" and adopted into the English tongue.

A fabric that looks very much like caracul is used for this trim little suit. It is worn with a green suede belt and hat to match.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

MATCHING LINGERIE

The autumn bride should follow the new French trick of having a lingerie set to match every frock in her trousseau. For the perfect ensemble now does not comprise merely visible accessories, but invisible ones as well. Of course if your funds are unlimited you may simply give your order to your dressmaker—to have lingerie sets to go with all your frocks. But otherwise you must go about this task yourself, getting samples of the materials so as to be sure to get the right colored lingerie.

It may be that some of your frocks are too dark for matching lingerie. Navy blue and the new wine shades black prince, purples and deep bois de rose may strike you as vivid or too dark for lingerie. In that case you may choose a lighter tone of the same color, or may select a neutral tone—gray, ecru, beige for instance—and use the stronger color as trimming to match the frock.

GINGER APPLES

Take six medium, equal-sized apples, pare them, and remove the cores—but leave the apples whole. Place in a deep pie-dish, or baking tin, and add water to come three parts up the height of the apples—also four ounces of sugar, and a little lemon juice; bake until the apples are tender, but not broken. Then lift them carefully out, and place in a glass dish; fill the centers with a little preserved ginger finely chopped and a very little syrup. Pour around them one pint of boiled custard to which a tablespoon of the ginger syrup has been added.

Fried Eggs: 4 eggs, 4 tablespoons of butter, toasted bread. Heat the butter in a frying-pan. Break the eggs into cups, slip them gently in the hot butter or fat, and fry until the whites are set. Then baste them well with the butter or fat. Take the eggs up, drain well from fat, and serve on slices of toast.
Macaroni au Gratin: Break the macaroni into pieces about 1 1/2 inches long, put them into rapidly-boiling salted water and boil for about 20 minutes, or until the macaroni is tender. Cover the bottom of a well-greased baking-dish with white sauce, sprinkle liberally with grated cheese, seasoning to taste, and add a layer of macaroni. Repeat these processes; cover the last layer of macaroni thickly with sauce, sprinkle the entire surface lightly with brown breadcrumbs, and add a few small pieces of butter. Bake in a quick oven for about 20 minutes, then serve in the dish in which it is cooked.
Baked Spanish Onions: Put 4 or 5 onions, with their skins on, into a saucepan of boiling water, slightly salted, and let them boil quickly for about 1 hour. Then take them out, wipe them thoroughly, wrap each one in a piece of greased paper, and bake 2 hours, or longer.

"THE WIFE WHO WASN'T WANTED" with Irene Rich is a picturization of this novel.

SYNOPSIS

Young Bob Manning has been arrested for driving a car which crashed into another and killed a woman. Bob's mother, Ellen, pleads with her husband, John Manning, who is District Attorney, to release the boy, but he insists Bob must stay in jail. His own duty, John declares, is to the public. "Then," shouts Ellen, "you are not my husband! But I can and will fight, even if you do turn your back on our boy—for I am his mother!"

Enough to carry it through. Bledsoe broke in. Turning impatiently from the window, he moved over to the desk and picked up the paper only to toss it aside in disgust. "He's got his re-election all sewed up, I tell you. Nothing but a miracle will stop him." With which political forecast Bledsoe turned as if to depart.

But Slick was before him. Confidence and assurance lighted his eye as he intercepted the millionaire. In the very face of the other's gloomy prediction he was cheerful.

CHAPTER VII

Regardless of certain journalistic assertions to the contrary, there was at least some interest displayed in the campaign Jerome Wallace waged for the office of District Attorney.

Naturally Wallace was interested himself, so interested, indeed, that this morning he had even forsaken his bed and the comforts of his luxuriously appointed apartment up town at an unusually early hour to come down and visit his campaign headquarters.

Slick Jennings, too, had likewise displayed sufficient interest to be at hand to welcome cordially him whose political destinies he was supposed to forward with deft touch and masterful skill. This self same ability to make a masterful touch deftly was doubtless responsible for the vigor with which Slick chewed away at his after-breakfast cigar and regarded with satisfied complacency the presence of the opulent Mr. E. I. Bledsoe—apparently another interested party—at the very moment

"Nobodies never won no election till the vote was counted," he declared firmly. There was a superabundance of negatives in the assertion, but it was meaty—very meaty. It conveyed meaning, and great minds are prone to neglect nonessentials.

"Things can happen—d-mn funny things can happen sometimes," continued Slick with feeling. Evidently this man was a student of life, for here was sound philosophy if somewhat crudely expressed. A modernist was Slick, yet one who conceded that miracles were possible. Yes, in his manner there was a vague something which seemed to express a willingness to see that miracles took place—more, even to the extent of performing them himself. And his confident smile, the cocky angle of his hat and the jaunty tilt of his cigar seemed to breathe marked capabilities in that line did he but set his mind to it.

But suddenly the hope and promise in Slick's main seemed to fade. It was as if the brightness of a cheery day were veiled by mist, and all powerful as he was Mr. Jennings could not escape an immutable law. He hooked a finger into the rotund waistcoat of E. I. Bledsoe and regarded it as though he contemplated further explorations.

"It takes gas—a lot-a gas—to make the ole flivver climb a hill," he exclaimed cryptically, "and the tank is low—runnin' blame low."

Mystic words these to the uninitiated, but apparently not to Mr. Bledsoe. He hesitated, looked very glum and then with a sigh produced a check book from his pocket.

The effect of this action upon Slick was electrical. In an instant he was his cheerful self again—indeed, more so, for now joviality and cordiality appeared to exude from every pore of his plump body. As one who has completed a difficult task, he mopped the perspiration from his brow and waxed very busy. In his haste to see that Mr. Bledsoe was given every convenience and comfort in the preparation of his check Slick was rather unceremonious in the manner in which he ousted Wallace from the desk and chair.

But Wallace did not appear to mind. Such was his confidence in Slick's abilities, seemingly, that the mere sight of Bledsoe's check seemed to erase the memory of the morning's bad news. Flicking a speck of cigarette ashes from his carefully pressed trousers, he adjusted his tie and departed with that inscrutable smile of his upon his face. He went forth a well-dressed man of leisure apparently in the best of spirits to take a drive, a long drive, which led in the direction of the jail, a place where at that very moment in the visitors' room Ellen and two lawyers were in conference with Bob.

Yet it was a curious conference, a rather one-sided one, for Bob sat apart and gave little heed to what was taking place.

"As to the postponement," one of the lawyers was explaining to Ellen, "we have procured a continuance of thirty days, which in the congested state of the calendar means that the case will not come to trial for at least six weeks."

Ellen bowed and turned to give Bob a smile of encouragement, which faded as another thought claimed her.

"Did my—did the District Attorney object?"

"Oh, no," said the lawyer quickly. "There could hardly be objection to that. We have been retained so recently in the case that as a matter of course we are entitled to ample time to prepare an appropriate defense for our client."

"But did the District Attorney say anything? I should have thought he would have said something," persisted Ellen, and there was a wistful look in her eyes.

The chief difference between the middle class and the upper class is that fewer things bore the middle class.

The meanest man in the world is the one who won't quarrel with his wife when she has a headache and needs relief.

The School Bond Load

Forty-year bonds for the new high school spread the burden evenly over the next generation, where it rightly belongs.

Children yet unborn will reap benefit from these bonds, They will be willing to help pay for them.

And the tax-rate of 14 cents per hundred to carry the bonds is a maximum. As the district grows in value the tax will be reduced.

Forty years ago the assessed valuation of the district was well under a Million Dollars.

Today it is over $35,000,000, and growing very fast. Forty years hence it may be over half a billion dollars. Forty years ago the population of the district was under 1,000 people, living on ranches and farms.

Today over 30,000 people live here, supported largely by the factories of the fourth largest payroll community in California.

Forty years hence no one can dream how populous or wealthy we shall be.

But we must prepare for that day.

Good schools are one necessity if we are to attract population and payrolls.

They are investments, not only in our children, but also in our future as a community.

We Cannot Afford Not to Vote These Bonds

The undersigned organizations urge the support of the people of this district for these bonds.

ALL STAR ACTS AT CALIFORNIA WITH PICTURE

A great all-star bill of road show vaudeville comes to the California theatre today in conjunction with Betty Bronson's first starring vehicle "The Golden Princess," adapted from Bert Harte's glorious romance of early California.

Ward and Watts chief in importance of today's variety bill have a pretentious production of song and comedy chatter all of which are done in their own original style and introduce the newest ideas in entertainment.

The Cameo Trio a great aggregation of musicians and singers will prove a real treat to the music lovers with jazz and classical song numbers, accordion and guitar solos.

Mack and Forest, America's foremost dancers, offer their own novel creation "Dancing Around the World" during their offering this clever couple introduce the most popular dances of the principal countries of the world including wooden shoes, soft shoes and acrobatic dancing.

Raymond, the xylophonist extraordinary, offers a varied program of popular and classical musical gems. A feature of Raymond's offering is his interpretation of a pipe organ.

The Zelvetos Trio with their own original "Shadow-Color-Graphs" will prove as amusing for the old as well as the young.

"The Golden Princess" is of especial interest to the picture-going population, and for a two-fold reason. It marks the debut of Betty Bronson as a full-fledged film star, and it deals with a significant and picturesque period of American history—the California gold rush of 1849.

Ever since Betty scored such an instantaneous success with her delightful portrayal of "Peter Pan," her meteoric career has been watched with a good deal of undisguised admiration, and there will be none to begrudge her this crowning promotion which elevates her to stardom.

As the heroine of "The Golden Princess," Betty is said to have a part that suits her to the proverbial "T."

A flashing thrilling melodrama is "The Golden Princess"—a credit to the Bret Harte story from which Frances Agnew adapted it. Neil Hamilton, Rockcliffe Fellowes, Phyllis Haver and Joseph Dowling are the principal supporting players.

Other features on the same program include "Who's Who," a roaring comedy; "Kinograms"; Carl Richard's California Orchestra; Larry Canelo at the organ.

Madigan's Men Take 45-6 Tilt To Open Season

EWING FIELD, San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Coach Slip Madigan and his St. Mary's Phoenix opened the football season with a crash here today, when the Whittier eleven was trampled at will in the second half and beaten 45 to 6.

In the last half the advantage was all St. Mary's, in every department of the game, but in the first two periods, Whittier held the Saints to 12 points and scored a touchdown.

The first touchdown was made by the Red and Blue of Oakland, when Bettencourt recovered a fumble and ran five yards to the line. Denny, Whittier safety man and quarter, dropped Rooney's punt to permit the score.

The Saints' battering attack and brilliant attack and brilliant passes wore the Whittier team down and in the last quarter the Oaklanders tallied 19 points.

In truth the game was just what it was supposed to be, a good workout on a turf grid for Madigan's men.

Pennant Finals Of County Will Be Played Today

Championship honors in baseball will be decided today at Concord, when the fast club of that city meets the Crockett aggregation. Both teams have been victorious in nearly every encounter this season, Concord defeating the Schneider Tailors of Richmond recently. Bliss and Austin are slated for the Concord battery, while Wise and Lambert will perform for the sugar town boys.

The Alhambra football squad was defeated Friday afternoon at Hay-

Owen Moore Is Featured In "Thundergate"

Mystic China! Elaborate, colorful settings! Pretentious costumes! Excitement! Drama! Romance! All these and more in "Thundergate," a First National picture, which comes today to the Richmond theatre.

The story deals with an American who through the duplicity of the girl to whom he is engaged, abetted by her lover, sinks to degradation in China. Through circumstances he is forced to masquerade as a Chinese overlord and then meets romance in the shape of a white girl, who had been reared as Chinese.

The girl is brought to him as a slave-wife. He learns she is white and then a conflict begins to save her from a Chinese and at the same time expose the duplicity of his former associates.

"Thundergate" is described as a swiftly moving drama replete with thrills. Owen Moore, one of the screen's most popular players, enacts the leading role, Virginia Brown Faire plays the part of the slave wife. Other film celebrities in the cast are Sylvia Breamer, Tully Marshall, Robert McKim, Richard Cummings and Ynez Seabury.

Other features on the same program include "Baby Blues," a Mickey Bennett comedy; "Kinograms" world news events.

Marcus Tossers To Play Oakland

A baseball team representing the Harry Marcus Clothing company will play in Oakland this afternoon. On the local lineup are several stars of the Richmond Twilight league this season. Manager Holland of the Marcus company will use Murray, as a pitcher with the following supporting cast:

ward by a score of 19 to 0—the same score that sent Mount Diablo back from Alameda on the losers end. The Alhambra crew worked hard but couldn't hold a heavier team and displayed a lack of practice.

Richmond Is Match For Tam Men

the hosts with the navy blue and red jerseys stiffened and held on like leeches.

In the first section Tam passed, the ball was fumbled by the Mountaineer end, fumbled again by Richmond, and then caught by Tam and carried to Richmond's four yard line. Then Tam fumbled a snapped ball and recovered on Richmond's one yard line. Then a break came for the locals. They recovered another fumble and by a long punt removed immediate danger.

Early in the last quarter the Richmond rooters held their breaths when several long end runs were made and the ball carried within Richmond's five yard line. For four times the huskies of Tamalpais plunged with all their might against the local line, which at that time was impregnable. Again, just as the last whistle sounded, Tam's man had his hands extended to receive the ball for a drop kick from the ten yard line directly in front of the goal posts.

One thing was accomplished for Richmond, by the games even though it was not won. All players, officials and students of the school now figure, mathematically that the stain of the Petaluma defeat two weeks ago is wiped out. Petaluma beat Richmond 3 to 2—one point. Tamalpais beat Petaluma 7 to 6—one point. Richmond and Tamalpais play a tie—the score is even. Q. E. D.

No man on the Richmond eleven could be picked as a star of the game. Every member, subs included, fitted almost perfectly into the machine that played as it never played before. Coach Ivan Hill declared after the game that if Richmond had played against Petaluma as it did against Tam, the Chicken City crew would never have had a chance.

Hill started the game with Baldwin, center; Reimer and Caldwell, guards; Concannon and Hutchinson, tackles; Borgstrom and Gray, ends; Siegel, quarter; Wood and Holland, halves; Captain Bill Millicette, full.

Substitutions were: Carey for Gray; Fisher of Concannon; Mariola for Woods; Santella for Holland and Dalton for Siegel.
